much pleasure to hear of your efforts in the cause of Abolition. The doctrines which you present on this subject I am confident is the true ones, and I feel no apprehension, that it will not ultimately prevail.

Yours respectfully

Dear Sir,

I am authorized to send you the names of Rev Joseph P. Tessenden of South, and Rev. Charles Soule of North Bridgton in this state to be added to the subscribers to the declaration, which you propose to append to your Lectures on the subject of Slavery. Both these gentlemen are graduates of this College and highly respectable Clergymen. Should opportunity occur, I shall probably be able to furnish you with some additional names. My object in writing to you at this time is to apprise you of a fact, with which I apprehend you are not yet acquainted, viz. that President Lord of Hanover is fully with us in the cause of abolition. From a conversation, which I have recently had with him, I think he would undoubtedly sign your declaration, if it were sent to him. I had not a copy with me, when I saw him about a week since or ten days since, and he had heard nothing of your movement until I informed him. His name would be of great value to the cause. Had you not better write to him immediately on the subject? It has afforded me
